

Mr Pär Brumark, since January 2013, the GAC Representative of Niue and appointed Special Envoy for The Government of Niue.

Pär Brumark is one of the currently serving GAC Vice Chairs and has previously served two full terms as Vice Chair before (2017-2020).

Pär Brumark has a professional private sector background in Intellectual Property protection, IT-Security, Media industry, Domain industry and Public Relations. He has been nominated twice to the Swedish Parliament (National elections 2010 and 2014).

As GAC Representative of Niue, he has attended all ICANN meetings since ICANN47. Pär Brumark was one of five GAC Appointed Members of the CCWG on Enhancing ICANN Accountability (WS1) during the preparations for the IANA Stewardship Transition. Pär Brumark has an educational background in Media Technology, Lund University, Sweden, 1983-86, followed by additional studies at Lund University in Law, Intelligence Analysis and Political Science.